

The European Summer Program is composed of two 4-week-courses (ESP1 from May 28 to June 25; ESP2 from June 29 to July 23). All courses fulfil ECTS standards and are taught in English (except as specified). Students can choose from a large variety of electives.

The program has been designed as a real “package”, including academic courses, curriculum-related field trips, personalized assistance, accommodation on the campus, and provides breakfast and lunch during weekdays—another advantage especially for students travelling for a first time.
