Date limite recommandée : le lundi 18 avril
Date limite ferme : le mercredi 20 avril

Imaginez que vous avez gagné au loto ! Vous décidez de voyager à un pays ou une région francophone. Suivez (follow) les instructions ici.

General format

- 1) Write a paragraph of 8-10 sentences in French.
- 2) Choose one country/region/city/etc. BESIDES FRANCE where French or French créole is a major language spoken.
- 3) Make sure to include the following
 - Say where you are going
 - Who is going with you (avec = with, seul(e) = by yourself)
 - How you plan to get there (by plane, boat, train...)
 - What type(s) of transportation you'll use once you're there.
 - At least 2 things you want to do or see. These should be tailored to your destination (you can include other info about why you'd like to visit the country also, if you'd like).
- 4) Be sure the composition flows logically (ideas, transitions, etc.)
- 5) The composition should be HANDWRITTEN on notebook paper (or the back of this sheet).

Other important info/advice (please read these!)

- 1) The idea is for you to find out more about the French-speaking world and practice with vocab and grammar you know, even if it means your composition will be simpler than what you would write in English.
 - If you feel your French is pretty good, feel free to use a variety of vocabulary/structures to express your ideas creatively
 - If you feel your French isn't as good, you can still be creative, but you might try to keep your ideas / sentences pretty straightforward to make sure you understand what you're saying.
- 2) YOU MUST USE AT LEAST ONE SOURCE & at the end of the composition, CITE THE SPECIFIC SOURCE(S) (NAME, FULL WEB ADDRESS, PAGE, ETC.) OF YOUR INFORMATION. If you use Motifs, say what page you got the info on. If you use a website, give a specific URL (address); if you use a paper encyclopedia, give the name, publication date, page, etc.
- 3) DO NOT COPY WORD-FOR-WORD FROM A SOURCE. (Copying directly without quotation marks would be considered plagiarism. For this exercise, please don't use direct quotations even with the quotes.)
- 4) YOU CANNOT USE ANY UNAUTHORIZED OUTSIDE HELP such as an online translator (Google or others), a tutor, a friend, etc. If you're not sure whether something is allowed, you should ask me before doing it.
- 5) You CAN use a dictionary (a paper one or <http://wordreference.com>, for example), your textbook, or notes/info from class, or ask me a question.
- 6) As usual, you will be graded on CONTENT, VOCAB, ORGANIZATION, and GRAMMAR.
- 7) You can use a photo, map, etc. if you'd like to illustrate your composition, but it's NOT required.

Try to do something that would be interesting or fun for you. Bon voyage et bonne chance !
